

God's People Disobey

Israel refused to obey God. He finally let them be taken captive, hoping they would realize their mistake. Some listened to God and returned to Israel, but they never became what God had planned.